Github profile:

The screenshot shows a web browser with multiple tabs open. The active tab is the GitHub profile page for 'tyler-pranger'. The page header includes navigation links: 'Pull requests', 'Issues', 'Marketplace', and 'Explore'. The profile section on the left features a placeholder for a profile picture, a status box with 'Set your status' and 'Give us feedback', the name 'Tyler Pranger' with the handle 'tyler-pranger', and a 'Joined 6 minutes ago' timestamp with an 'Edit' button.

The main content area is titled 'Overview' and shows statistics: 'Repositories 0', 'Stars 0', 'Followers 0', and 'Following 0'. Below this is a 'Popular repositories' section with a message: 'You don't have any public repositories yet.' Further down is a '1 contribution in the last year' section featuring a calendar grid. The grid shows a single green square on January 1st, indicating a contribution. Below the calendar is a 'contribution graph' explanation: 'This is your contribution graph. Your first [green square] is for joining GitHub and you'll earn more as you make additional contributions. More contributions means a darker green square for that day. Over time, your chart might start looking something like this.' A link 'Learn how we count contributions.' is provided. At the bottom of this section is a 'Read the Hello World guide' link.
